

Kids Can't Wait 2017 Legislative Agenda Tracker

| Kids Can't Wait Priority  | Bill #  | Short Description  | Mid-Session Status  | End of Session Status |
|---|---|--|---|-----------------------|
| Affordable, accessible child care: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>adopting new federal requirements and aligning with national best practices to make CCAP work better for families;</li> <li>increasing CCAP provider reimbursement rates; and</li> <li>funding the Basic Sliding Fee Child Care Assistance Program</li> </ul> | Governor Dayton's Budget Proposal (P. 132)          | Adopts family-friendly federal requirements/aligns with national best practices to make CCAP work better for families and providers. Increases CCAP provider reimbursement rate from 25 th percentile of 2011 child care provider rate survey to 25 th percentile of 2016 survey.  | Not included in either Senate or House HHS budget bills.  |                       |
|   | SF1278 (Lourey)HF1458 (Franson) | Includes same family-friendly provisions and rate increase as Governor Dayton's proposal above.  | Not included in either Senate or House HHS budget bills.  |                       |
|   | SF823 (Hoffman)HF723 (Peterson) | Increases funding for Basic Sliding Fee Child Care Assistance. Includes increase to CCAP provider reimbursement rate from 25 th percentile of 2011 child care provider rate survey to 25 th percentile of most recent biennial child care provider rate survey. House File amended to include HF1583 , making working families a funding priority for Basic Sliding Fee. | Senate: Not included in Senate HHS budget bill, SF800 .House: Making working families a funding priority for Basic Sliding Fee included in House HHS budget bill.FY2018-19: $11.7 m.FY2020-21: $14.8 m.(House HHS budget bill, HF945 , see section 4) |                       |
|   | SF560 (Hayden)HF724 (Moran)     | Forecasts Basic Sliding Fee Child Care Assistance; increases CCAP provider reimbursement rate to 75 th percentile of most recent survey.  | Not included in either Senate or House HHS budget bills.  |                       |

|  |  |  |   |  |
|--|--|--|---|--|
| Child and Dependent Care Tax Credit increase and expansion | Governor Dayton's Tax Proposal (P. 8)                   | Includes an increase to the maximum credit to $1,050 for families with one child and $2,100 for families with two or more children and raises the threshold at which families could qualify to receive a credit to $89,000 (one child) and $101,000 (two or more children). | Identical language not included in either Senate or House tax bill. Similar version in House tax bill.   |  |
|  | HF1499 (Loon)SF1803 (Anderson, P.) | Includes an increase to the maximum credit to $1,050 for families with one child and $2,100 for families with two or more children and raises the threshold at which families could qualify to receive a credit to $82,000 (one child) and $94,000 (two or more children).  | Senate: Not included in Senate tax bill, SF2255. House: Families with one dependent: new max credit is $1,050 (up from $720) and max adjusted family gross income to qualify is $62,000 (up from $39,400). Families with two or more dependents: new max credit is $2,100 (up from $1,440) and max adjusted family gross income is $74,000 (up from $39,400). FY2018-19: $16.9 m.FY2020-21: $18.9 m. (House tax bill, HF4, see section 20) |  |